FOURTH DAY.

Morning Session.

FRIDAY, October 26, 9:30 a. m.

The Synod was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Hon. J. S. Cothran, a member of Synod, stated that he had been appointed by the Presbyterian Alliance to bear its salutations to the A. R. P. Synod of the South, and would have to depart for that purpose to-day; he therefore asked leave of absence on that account. His request was granted, and he was instructed also to bear the salutations of this Synod to its brethren of the A. R. P. Synod.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Shearer, Synod of North Carolina, was welcomed as a corresponding member.

Rev. Dr. Jacobs presented the report of the Board of Visitors of the Thornwell Orphanage, which was received as information. (See Appendix.)

On motion, Rev. J. E. Fogartie, and Elders M. F. Ansell and W. A. Nicholson were elected to fill the vacancies on the Board of Visitors from this Synod.

Rev. W. G. Neville of the Committee on the Theological Seminary, presented a report which was adopted, as follows:

The Committee on the Theological Seminary beg leave to submit the following report:

We have carefully examined the report of the Board of Directors to the Synod and the records of the Board.

We find that the records are neatly, and as far as we know, correctly kept.

We rejoice to hear through these sources, of the increasing prosperity of the Seminary. There have been in attendance upon the exercises of the Institution during the last year fifty-three students, the largest number reported for years. The students have been industrious and have made commendable progress in their studies. All the members of the Faculty have been at the post of duty and have done faithful work. The members of the Board from this Synod have been diligent in their attendance upon the meetings of the Board.

An examination of the records of the Board discloses the fact that the assets of the Institution, exclusive of the Seminary buildings and grounds aggregate, $234,167. Of this amount $51,663. is non-productive, leaving $182,594. as the interest-producing assets.

The income from investments during the year was $12,132. The expenses were $15,490. The excess of expenses over the income was $3,358.

From this there should be deducted an extraordinary expense, on account of insurance, the sum of $810, leaving as the excess of expenditures the sum of $2,548.

Your Committee recommend that the Synod urge the Board to take care that the expenses of the Institution be kept safely within the income, so that there shall be no accumulation of debt.

Your Committee further call Synod's attention to the fact that during the last year the Faculty with the consent of the Finance Committee borrowed upon their joint note without interest the sum of $500. from the Elocution Endowment Fund to aid the students in an emergency. Subsequently the Board ordered that said "note be surrendered to the Faculty and that their receipt be taken by the treasurer as his voucher." This, it appears to your committee, was an error of administration. Said loan should have been charged to the Students' Fund.

We, therefore, recommend that this action of the Board be disapproved, and that the Board be directed to reimburse the Elocution Endowment Fund from the Students' Fund to the amount of $500.

We recommend, further, that the Synod notes with pleasure the fact that at the suggestion of the Faculty the Board of Directors of the Seminary have taken action restricting the granting of certificates of graduation only to such students as have attained on examination a fixed standard of proficiency; and that, in order to render this action of the Board more effective this Synod calls the attention of the Presbyteries to the importance of holding to a strict account Candidates who fail to come up to the fixed standard.

We call Synod's attention to the fact that the term of office of two of Synod's Directors expires at this meeting, viz: Rev. J. G. Richards and Rev. C. W. Humphreys. We recommend that Synod elect their successors at this meeting.

We further recommend that the Synod request the Board of Directors to transmit with their report to each meeting of Synod a catalogue of the Seminary and a copy of the plan of government.

Finally, we recommend that the Seminary again be heartily commended to the prayers and liberality of all our people.

W. G. NEVILLE, Chairman.

Revs. J. G. Richards and C. W. Humphreys were re-elected Directors for three years.

Rev. D. N. McLauchlin presented the report of the Committee on the Narrative, which was adopted as follows:

Narratives from all the Presbyteries have come into our hands. Four state the percentage of Sessional Narratives embodied in their respective reports, and two are silent on this point. Considering the four as representatives of the whole, seventy-five per cent. of all the churches within our bounds furnish facts for this estimate of the state of religion.

1. Vacancies within our borders are possibly on the decrease, although in one Presbytery there are twelve vacancies and in another it is said that there will be great destitutions during this fall and winter.

2. Attendance on the services of the Sanctuary where ever the subject is mentioned is represented as encouraging. The Presbyteries bear almost unanimous testimony (though some with reservation) to the effect that worldly vices, in their commonest seductive forms, are on the decline; and that the tone of spiritual life as evinced by punctuality at worship, activity in Christian service, liberality in consecrated giving, and like tests, is prevailingly healthy.

3. In one Presbytery spiritual coldness and consequent inertia are lamented. Elsewhere testimony is borne uniformly to the abiding, substantial presence of the Spirit, while here and there, there have been refreshing showers and souls in unusual numbers have been gathered into the Kingdom. 486 accessions have been reported by profession and 118 by certificate. This however is the total from only seventy-five per cent. of the churches of four Presbyteries, two having failed to supply data on this point. Very few of the churches in the Synod are without Sabbath Schools. This arm of our work seems to be growing stronger.

4. There are three cases of discipline reported from one Presbytery. Others report none or make no report at all. There seems to be, in so far as your Committee can estimate, an appreciable relaxation of discipline in late years, whether from improved morality or negligence, we have no means of determining definitely.

5. The observance of the Sabbath seems to be about normal, although there comes up from many quarters discouraging complaints of its desecration through worldly recreations, of the invasion of Christian homes by secular newspapers, and of Christian communities by the baleful effects of the operation, on the Sabbath day, of various secular concerns and enterprises. There seems to be a need of a new clear cut deliverance of the Synod as to its position on the Sabbath Question, possibly also a propriety, considering the circumstances in the premises, of overturing the Assembly to do the same.

6. The Presbyteries are unanimous in reporting family worship as sadly neglected. It is the one subject on which all testimony is alike discouraging. We seem to be confronted with a condition that almost impeaches the consistency of this paper. Can a church increase in solid spirituality and consecrated service while confessedly almost totally neglecting this cardinal duty in her homes? Can public Christian life be better than home life? Can the former increase independently of the latter? Are there not reasons for suspecting this alleged growth as superficial and illusory. There is need of designed, importunate and concerted prayer and the exercise of every ecclesiastical means for the improvement of this sad state of affairs.

Respectfully submitted,

D. N. McLAUCHLIN, Chairman.

Rev. Dr. S. S. Laws presented, and Synod adopted, the following:

As aiding the families of the churches to conduct regularly and faithfully family worship, it is urged on the pastors that they recommend to their people some suitable manual that may be used in family devotions.

Elder J. J. Lewis, of Pickens, C. H., Church gave satisfactory reason for tardiness and was enrolled.

Rev. J. G. Richards reported in behalf of the Judicial Committee that no business had come into its hands. The report was accepted.

Rev. Dr. Smith reported as follows, which was approved and on motion, the same Committee was continued to report at the next meeting:

The Special Committee appointed to consider the subject of Synodical Evangelization and recommend some action thereupon for the Synod Reports:

That they have given the subject very serious consideration and while recognizing the importance of the subject, your Committee feel constrained to report to the Synod that in their judgment the time is inopportune to initiate such a movement, and therefore rather than jeopar dize the success of the movement, they recommend that the consideration of Synodical Evangelization be postponed until next meeting.

J. L. McLEES,
SAMUEL M. SMITH, Committee.
B. PALMER REID.

Rev. G. G. Mayes reported for the Committee on Colored Evangelization, which report was adopted as follows:

Your Committee would report that nothing has come into our hands upon which to base a report. We call to the attention of Synod that the Chairman of Synod's Permanent Committee has moved beyond our bounds and we would recommend that Rev. S. L. Wilson be made Chairman of said Committee.

G. G. MAYES, for Committee.

On motion of Elder Stevenson, the Synod took up the report of the Committee on Christian Education and it was considered seriatim.

At 12 o'clock, pending the consideration of this matter, Synod receded from business for divine worship, conducted by Rev. J. H. Thornwell, D. D., who preached from John, ii : 1.

After preaching, Synod resumed the consideration of the report on Christian Education. After the adoption of the first section and the rejection of the second, the whole matter was posponed till next Synod, and was docketed for consideration then.

Rock Hill was chosen as the place of next meeting, and Wednesday before the 4th Sabbath in October, 7:30 p. m., the time.

The paper relating to the action of the Assembly on Organic Union was taken from the docket and adopted as follows:

Whereas, the General Assembly at Nashville declined to appoint a Committee of Conference on Organic Union, as requested by the Assembly at Saratoga; therefore,

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Synod of South Carolina, the action of our Assembly was not only consistent with proper courtesy, but was eminently judicious, and therefore to be commended.

Synod then took recess till 4 p. m.

Afternoon Session.

4 p. m.

The report of the Committee on Publication was presented and adopted as follows:

We respectfully submit the following report:

1. That the work and zeal of the Committee and Colporteur be commended.

2. That the death of Rev. J. S. Cozby is a great loss to the Synod and to the Permanent Committee, and that Rev. D. E. Jordan be made Chairman and W. G. Neville be added to the Committee, the other members remaining the same.

3. That the Committee be urged to continue the work with the usual vigor and enterprise.

B. F. WILSON, Chairman.

The report on Home Missions was taken from the docket, considered, and adopted as follows:

With the desire to procure as many facts of interest, as possible, touching the work of Home Missions in general, and in our own Synod in particular, a conference on this subject was held this day between the members of the Committee, and the Chairman or representatives of our Presbyterial Committees of Home Missions.

The subject is certainly one of very grave interest and deserves much more time than your Committee has had to give it, in view of the order of exercises for this evening. The work committed to the Church by the great Head thereof, is more immediately concerned herein than in any other department of Church work, probably; and it should therefore receive the most earnest and faithful attention of every servant of the Master who has at heart the evangelization of this world and the speedy coming of our blessed Lord.

After a careful examination of the Reports of the Presbyterial Committees, and our conference with the brethren representing these Committees, we beg leave to report as follows, viz:

'Bethel Presbytery has within its bounds 4 counties, each one of which has several churches of our own faith and order, yet there are some portions of this old Presbytery that are strictly Home Mission ground, and deserve the attention of the Church. We are gratified to report that the Presbytery is endeavoring to compass the work in its bounds, and that it has in the field at large, one Evangelist with an assistant, who is also an ordained minister; with still another who is doing strictly Evangelistic work in the bounds of one of our largest churches and under its jurisdiction. Several of our ministers seem to appreciate the opportunities offered them and are actively engaged in prosecuting Home Mission work, as far as their duties as pastors will permit. Besides this some considerable work of a Home Mission character is done by a few of our Ruling Elders. We haven't in hand sufficient information as to the amount of money necessary for the demands of the work in this Presbytery, but are assured of the ability of Presbytery to meet all necessary requirements of a financial character to accomplish the work now in hand.

Charleston Presbytery has 10½ counties within its bounds—the half county of Lexington in the bound of this Presbytery is without a Presbyterian Church. In two of these counties there are but two Presbyterian churches, viz: Beaufort and Hampton. One Evangelist is reported as laboring in the bounds of the Presbytery. The work of this Presbytery is reported to be in a very healthy condition and of rich promise. Considering its large territory, we are specially gratified at these facts. One church organized about a year ago is about beginning the erection of a house of worship; two other churches in Home Mission territory are well under way; and at still another point a church is soon to be organized. During the past season every field in the Presbytery was supplied with the preached word—some of them by students in our Seminary, whose work is well spoken of. It is believed that the time of two Evangelists might well be spent in the bounds of this Presbytery and it appears that Presbytery is able to meet the expenses necessary for their support. The contributions of the churches in this Presbytery, during the past year have been exceptionally liberal.

Enoree Presbytery has four counties in its bounds, and all of them are well occupied by our churches, though we are informed of a territory 25 miles wide by 75 miles long in which there are but two very weak churches. There are several Cotton Factory towns in the bounds of this Presbytery, offering rich opportunities for Missionary work. It is very evident, as is reported, that an Evangelist is needed in this Presbytery, which for two years has been without one. Their Home Mission Committee is authorized to elect one as soon as it is possible to find a man suited to the work. Their fifty-three churches are regularly supplied with the preached word, except three. The report from this Presbytery is encouraging, though there is expressed an apprehension, because of a want of proper concern on the part of the churches and members generally of their responsibilities in the work of Home Evangelization.

In Pee Dee Presbytery there are 6 counties—none of them without a Presbyterian church. There are four fields vacant in the bounds of the Presbytery, three of which are self-sustaning and will probably soon be supplied. There is no Evangelist laboring in the bounds of this Presbytery, though it is said that one is very much needed. The Presbytery is represented as unable to support an Evangelist, and for this reason the work must suffer, unless there are some means provided for its relief.

Its Sustentation work needs $200, which can be provided by the Presbytery; but little more can be done by it towards the support of an Evangelist. These facts are given us by an active member of the Presbytery, no report on this subject from this Presbytery having been placed in our hands.

The territory of South Carolina Presbytery embraces 6½ counties. Its territory in one-half of Lexington County has no Presbyterian Church. One Evangelist has been laboring in the Presbytery with highly satisfactory results, but his services have been lost to the work because of lack of means to support him. It is reported to us that two Evangelists are much needed by this Presbytery and that it is barely able to support one Evangelist. There is need of from $1,500 to $2,000 to carry on the work now in hand and crying for help. In addition to this the services of these Evangelists are much needed and if secured they must be paid from an amount over and above what has just been stated. Its pastors are accustomed to do some Home Mission work in the Summer and Fall, and some four give more or less time to this work during the year.

In Harmony Presbytery there are five counties. In one of these, the County of Georgetown, there is no Presbyterian church, though it is reported that there are ten or twelve members of our Church at the County seat. It has had no Evangelist for two years, though one could well be employed in the bounds of the Presbytery; it is probable that his support could be provided for by the Presbytery. There are thirty Churches in the Presbytery and five have no regular services or preaching from any minister of the Word and no immediate prospect of supplying these vacancies is probable, except possibly for one of them. No report has come into the hands of your Committee from this Presbytery on this subject, and these facts are secured from an honored member of the Presbytery.

In view of the facts presented to us your Committee begs leave to call attention to the following considerations, viz:

1. There is evident need of a more earnest and faithful attention to this subject on the part of our Ministers and Ruling Elders; and our Pastors should be more diligent in setting before our congregations the demands of our Home fields and the golden opportunities open to us of accomplishing much good for the Master in our immediate section of the country. We recognize, too, the great necessity of more earnest prayer for the blessing of the Holy Spirit upon all our Evangelistic efforts.

2. The formation of Home Missionary Societies, in all our churches, as well as Foreign Missionary Societies, we are constrained to believe would accomplish much for the glory of the Master and the efficiency of our church.

3. It is evident, that if our stronger Presbyteries could be enlisted in behalf of our weaker Presbyteries, much more efficient work could be secured for our churches and tha glory of the Master. How this is best to be done, we do not here presume to suggest. A need is keenly felt for three Presbyterial Evangelists and the Presbyteries needing them are unable to secure the means for their support.

4. We commend to the special consideration of the Presbyteries of Bethel, Pee Dee and Harmony the expediency of changing their boundary lines, so as to give some of the Home Mission territory of Pee Dee and Harmony Presbyteries to Bethel and the possible combining of forces of Pee Dee and Harmony Presbyteries so as to accomplish the more securely the work in their bounds.

Touching the address of Rev. J. N. Craig, D. D., the Assembly's Secretary of Home Missions, Synod desires to assure our Secretary and Executive Committee of our appreciation of their great needs of the causes presented to us to day so faithfully, and to express the earnest hope that our churches may be brought to appreciate the opportunity God has given them of caring for his own needy ones, in their temporal and material necessities, and the Evangelization of our Southwest territory, so ready for the blessed Word of truth and salvation.

We recommend to our Churches through our Presbyteries:

1. Immediate attention to the collection in our Sabbath Schools for the Durant Choctaw Boarding House and the forwarding of these collections as soon as taken that the work be not unnecessarily delayed.

2. That in view of the pressing necessities of our Southwest territory, our churches consider the expediency of contributing to the cause of Assembly's Home Missions somewhat in the following proportion—Our stronger churches 10 per cent., our churches of medium strength 8 per cent. and our weaker Churches 5 per cent. of Pastor's salary of last year.

3. That the attention of our churches be called immediately through the medium of our Church papers, and any other way suggested in the wisdom of our Presbyterial Committees of Home Missions, to the urgent necessities pressing upon the Invalid Fund and the crying needs of some of God's aged, widowed and fatherless ones.

Respectfully submitted,

1. The report of the Permanent Committee presents in an admirable way a number of important and valuable facts collected by the Acting Chairman, the Rev. B. P. Reid, with great industry. It is recommended that this Report be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes; and that the thanks of the Synod be given to the Acting Chairman of the Permanent Committee for what he has done.

4. It is recommended that our ministers be urged frequently to bring to the attention of their congregations the subject of the Education of the Ministry in all its departments, including the question of a call to the Ministry as well as the training and support of candidates.

5. It is recommended that Synod urge our Presbyteries to exercise increased care in the reception of candidates and transferring them to other Presbyteries, and Pastors and Sessions in recommending persons to be received as such.

6. That it is the judgment of this Synod that Presbyteries should furnish their candidates with certificates of permission to enter the Seminary, and that where candidates fail to present such certificate it is the duty of the Faculty of our Seminary to require them to secure such permission from the Presbyterial Committees of Education of their respective Presbyteries until they can secure the formal permission of Presbytery.

7. It is suggested that Synod now consider and express an opinion on the following questions:

1. Should not Students during their term of study at College and the Seminary be required to devote all their time to their studies, abstaining from active work during such period?

2. Should not unlicensed Candidates, in their labors during the vacation, be carefully limited to such work as under our Form of Government they may lawfully do?

JAMES WOODROW, Chairman.

Rev. Dr. McKay presented the following paper which was adopted:

Whereas, It is the opinion of this Synod that some re-arrangement o the Presbyterial boundaries in the Eastern section of the State would probably promote a more successful prosecution of our work in that section, this Synod sends down to the Presbyteries of Bethel, Pee Dee and Harmony, the following overture:

The above named Presbyteries are directed to consider and report to the next meeting of Synod as to whether it would be advisable to make the following changes in their territorial limits, viz:

1. That the County of Kershaw be transferred from Harmony to Bethel Presbytery.

2. That the County of Chesterfield (excepting the churches of Cheraw and Orange Hill) be transferred to the Presbytery of Bethel.

3. That the remaining territory of the Presbyteries of Pee Dee and Harmony be consolidated under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery of Harmony.

Resolved, That the recommendation of the Permanent Committee on Church and Christian Education be postponed for consideration until the next regular meeting of Synod, and that an ad interim Committee of five be appointed to revise this paper, said Committee to be composed of persons representing these five institutions, viz:

Report of the Permanent Committee on Publication and Colportage.

The Permanent Committee on Publication and Colportage respectfully reports that during the year we have lost by death the Rev. J. S. Cozby, the Chairman of the Committee and the preparation of this report has fallen into unpractised hands. We keenly feel the need of his knowledge and his zeal for the work.

During the year Mr. R. C. Farr has been employed for 304 days of actual working time at a salary of fifty dollars a month, being paid for the number days work done.

He has traveled in the prosecution of his work, mostly by private conveyance, 3340 miles, has visited 1860 families, has sold 290 bibles, and 1344 other books. These sales amount to $165.81 for Bibles and $431.27 for the other publications.

He has donated in tracts and small volumes the amount of $26.25.

Respectfully Submitted

D. E. JORDAN, for Committee.

Report of the Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause.

The Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause would respectfully report to the Synod in Session at Greenville, S. C., October, 1894:

From the Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries to the last Assembly, covering the year from April 1st, 1893 to April 1st, 1894, we find that 58 Churches of our Synod contributed the sum of $481 to the Bible Cause. According to the Presbyteries the figures are as follows:

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Bethel, 12 | Churches | report | as | contributed | $207. |
| Charleston, 6 | " | " | " | " | 110. |
| Enoree, 14 | " | " | " | " | 51. |
| Harmony, 12 | " | " | " | " | 39. |
| Pee Dee, 5 | " | " | " | " | 20. |
| South Carolina 9 | " | " | " | " | 54. |

As comparred with last year's reports, in Bethel the number of contributing churches is the same, but the amount contributed has increased $36; in Charleston, the contributing churches have fallen off one-half—from 12 to 6—and the amount given is smaller by $60; in Enoree, the contributing churches have more than doubled—from 6 to 14—and the contributions have increased from $36 to $51; in Harmony the number of contributing churches have fallen off from 15 to 12, and the contributions from $81 to $39, more than one-half; and in South Carolina, while the number of contributing churches is one less, the amount given has increased from $42 to $54.

From this brief summary of facts and figures, it is evident that our people generally have not as yet taken hold of this great department of Christian evangelization, which is so essential in our Foreign Missionary work, and equally important at home in our missionary, Sunday School and pastoral work. The people without the Bible, as we see exhibited in Papal lands, is a condition of things not only fearful to contemplate in itself, but one which renders Christian success well nigh impossible. That this difficulty has been removed and our work in both the home and foreign fields made easy in this respect, is due largely to the American Bible Society, to which we have committed and in whose hands we have left for the most part, this fundamental work of supplying the Bible, in their own languages, to all the people. If then this work were understood and its value appreciated, our pastors would hardly fail to present it to their flocks, and the people would rarely decline to contribute to its support.

No doubt the fact that the time appointed by the Assembly for the annual collection—the 3rd Sabbath in October—comes in a month set apart also for Foreign Missions, whose claims are very pressing, has something to do with the general failure of the churches to contribute to this cause. The large number of calls, too, seems to make it impracticable for all to be responded to, especially by our country churches which have preaching only once or twice a month. Besides this the idea that the American Bible Society, with its very extensive patronage, embracing the various Christian denominations of the land in the North as well as in the South, is not dependent upon our contributions, doubtless removes the sense of necessity in this case. But a comprehensive view of the Church's work includes this essential department of Christian Evangelization, and makes it necessary to the development of our people that it be practically recognised. And the service that the American Bible Society has done for us in our poverty and need, and is still doing for us at home and abroad with a generous hand, should make us feel the obligation to contribute to its resources and co-operate in its efforts.

Happily for the great interests involved, as we learn from the last annual report of the Society, the Lord in his good providence has supplied during the last year the funds necessary to the maintenance and progress of the work despite our delinquency. But this has been through legacies, from which source an unprecedented amount was derived. The gifts of the living, amounting to some $78,000, were not at all adequate to the vast work of the Society, which would have suffered serious embarrassment but for the legacies received. This is, however, a very uncertain source of income, and the success of the work can be assured only by the regular, systematic, and general support of all our Churches.

During the last year the American Bible Society reports progress in its work, having put in circulation about 1,500,000 volumes of the Scriptures at home and abroad, and having also diligently and extensively prosecuted the work of translating and printing the Word as needed. Its special efforts to supply the immigrants coming to this Country and the children of our land, have too been continued with unremitting zeal.

In view of these facts we recommend:

1. That Synod again call the attention of our pastors and people to this cause, and commend it to them as deserving their consideration and support.

2. That our ministers be urged to present this great department of Christian work to their congregations and give them the opportunity of contributing regularly to it.

3. That the Synod once more commend the efforts of the American Bible Society to supply all the people, and especially every child who can read, with the Bible, and our people be exhorted to co-operate with the Society in this good enterprise.

In behalf of the Committee,

THOS. H. LAW, Chairman.

Annual Report of the Board of Directors of Columbia Theological Seminary, May 10, 1894.

The Board of Directors of the Columbia Theoligical Seminary respectfully submits the following as their Annual Report to the Associated Synods:

That the Institution has just closed a very prosperous year. There have been fifty-three students in attendance during the year just closed. The Institution has perhaps never seen a more prosperous year in its whole history. The Faculty reports that the students have made most commendable progress in their studies. Their examinations, both written and oral, are quite satisfactory. The funds of the Seminary are in a large part in good condition, and yielding a good interest. A part of the funds are not at present yielding interest. But it is hoped that the Investing Committee can make such changes in the vested funds as to have all the funds yielding the usual interest before a great while.

The Financial Agent has been engaged in visiting the Synods of South Carolina and Florida during the past year; and he has secured some $24,000.00 subscribed in five annual payments. The first payments of this subscription have been in large part received by the Treasurer. The agent is continued in the field. At the close of the term thirteen students were graduated from the Institution, who had finished the regular course of study, and the Board gave the regular certificate.

To relieve the Faculty of the extra work they have from year to year been performing, the Board has taken steps to engage the services of Rev. S. M. Smith, D. D., pastor of the 1st Church, Columbia, to give instruction in Elocutiom and Homiletics during the ensuing year.

The Board would commend this School of the Prophets to the Churches. It has done a grand work in the past, and it gives promise of a still greater work in the future.

W. W. MILLS,
Sec. of the Board.

May 10th, 1894.

N. B. The term time of Revs. J. G. Richards and C. W. Humphreys as Directors expires with this meeting of Synod. Bro. Humphreys was elected to fill unexpired term of Dr. Summey.

Report of Board of Visitors of the Thornwell Orphanage.

To the Moderator and Members of the Synod of South Carolina:

Dear Brethren—In behalf of the trustees of the Thornwell Orphanage, I am instructed to present, herewith, their Annual Report, for the year ending October 1st, 1894, completing the nineteenth year of the active work of the Institution.

From this report, you will see that during the past months, we have had under our care one hundred and twenty-five orphans with sixteen teachers, matrons and officers, making a total family of one hundred and forty-one. This family has been supported, instructed, clothed, and the officers salaried for a total period of twelve months, at a total cost of $11,787.52. This large sum of money was donated by a great number of individuals, residing in almost every State in the Union. About one-third of the total cost of maintaining the Institution came from within our own territory, that is from within the bounds of the six Presbyteries composing our Synod.

The buildings of the Orphanage have been improved by the erection of an Infirmary for the care of the sick. The house is now in process of construction. It will be completed by the first of January, and will very greatly and materially help the work. The cost of construction will be about $3,000.00, the larger part of which is defrayed by a legacy, left to the Orphanage by Mrs. Clarissa Fairchild, of Cleveland, Ohio, whose name the building will commemorate.

We are pleased to state that the Technical School has now been brought fully into use, and through the work of our young mechanics, printers and binders, has become self-supporting, and through the work done has very largely added to the convenience and improvements of the different departments.

The scholastic work of the Institution has been excellent, and results are highly satisfactory. Two young ladies were graduated at our last commencement. Four lads above sixteen, who have been trained in the Technical school, have been discharged, and several younger children returned to relatives, all being granted an honorable dismissal.

The spiritual condition of the household has been very encouraging. Both boys and girls have enjoyed ample religious privileges, and of their own accord, have each, maintained prayer meetings, of their own, apart from the Church prayer meeting, which they all attend. The presence of the young ladies of the Mission Training Class among them, has added greatly to the spiritual development of the household.

We trust that the brethren of the Synod will consider the interests of the Orphanage, at this meeting of your body, and would continue to help and pray for our orphans.

The accompanying report gives full particulars of the work and methods of the Institution. Copies of it will be placed in the hands of the members of the body.

Respectfully submitted by order of the Board of Visitors,

WM. P. JACOBS, President.

Members of Board—Rev. Jno. G. Law, removed. Hon. T. C. Gower, deceased.

The above having vacated their position, new members will need to be appointed.
